Lancaster Fair, July 28-30.

Rev. Ralph Carpenter, of Lexington will preach at New Antioch church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Lot Sale.

Hughes and Swinebroad sold for T. J. and W. A. Price, 3 lots on Hamilton avenue, to A. H. Bastin, for $600.

Michael's Military Band, of Cincinnati, will render a beautiful program at the Lancaster Fair, 28-30. The program is given in full, on second page.

Land Sale.

Hughes and Swinebroad report the sale by them for G. B. Swinebroad of 34 acres of unimproved land near Bryantville, being a portion of the land purchased by him of J. H. Dunn. The sale was made to M. F. Dunn, of Knox County at $100.00 per acre.

New Barber Shop.

Mr. F. P. Wilkerson, of Richmond, has opened a barber shop on Danville street. He has furnished it with the most up-to-date fixtures, and promises all customers courteous treatment. Mr. Wilkerson comes very highly recommended as a barber.

Narrow Escape.

Martha Ward, the bright little 2-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry D. Jones, of Monticello, and grand daughter of Mrs. H. H. Burdette, of this place, had quite a narrow escape one day recently from drowning. She accidentally fell into a stone jar of water, but in a short time was rescued.

Encampment Instituted.

On last Friday night the I. O. O. F., of this city instituted an encampment. About seventy five were present at the meeting and members of the encampment from Stanford, Danville, Richmond and Cartersville were present to assist in the work. After the work was finished an elegant banquet was given at the Sanders Hotel, which made the evening a most enjoyable one for all present.

To Test the Freshness of Eggs.

Placed in the water an egg, if fresh will remain at the bottom of the vessel, if not quite fresh it will rest with the big end raised higher than the small end, and the higher the big end is raised the older is the egg.

As an egg gets older, says the Spaniard, the water contained in the white of an egg evaporates, and this causes the empty space at the thick end of the egg to become enlarged. The larger that empty space becomes the more the egg rises in the water, till in course of time it floats.

The catalogs for the Lancaster Fair July 28, 29, 30, have just been delivered to R. L. Elkin, Secretary. They will be sent to any address for the asking.

Kangarian Hotel Stock.

Any stock holder wishing to dispose of his stock in the Kangarian Hotel will please call on Mr. or Mrs. R. Zimmer.

Lancaster Fair.

Prospects for a large crowd at the Lancaster Fair, July 28, 29, 30, were never before as pleasing. Reports for many stock men over the state insure the association, the best show of stock ever exhibited here. Why?—Because we offer $2,100 in cash premiums.

Painful Accident.

Last Sunday afternoon while leading one horse by another in his stable, Mr. Ben Hughes was kicked in the side. On examination the physicians found that three or four ribs had been broken. At last reports he is doing nicely and we hope will soon be able to be out again.

A Delightful Trip: Cheap Rates.

Those desiring a fine trip to Niagara, Cleveland, Buffalo, Toronto, Canada and Lake trips should join the party gotten up by Mrs. Ed C. Gaines. Also special rates to Atlantic City, Washington and other points. Call at Mrs. Gaines' residence, or phone 100.

Dull Knife.

When we stated in last issue that we were going after Richmond League team's scalp, we thought all was in readiness, but found out about 4:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon that our knife was too dull. It was a good game however, ending in a score of 3 to 0 in favor of Richmond, and the same tale as before, no runs were earned, all were made on errors. Harris umpired before a crowd of 400 people.

Chautauque in August.

A State-wide prohibition Chautauque will be at Lancaster, from August 3rd to the 8th, one week. This assembly will use a tent seating one thousand people and the most eminent lecturers, quartettes and musicians to be found on the American continent will be in the town. The business men should push this matter because of the financial advantage it will be to the town and the advertising it will give to the town of Lancaster also. It is not often that we have the privilege of entertaining men of such caliber and culture in our home town and the people should take advantage of such splendid opportunities.

Will Probated.

The will of Mr. T. S. Robinson which was probated Monday gives to his wife his residence in Hustonville and in addition to this the same interest in the rest of his estate that the law gives to widows where there is no will, that is one half of the personalty absolutely and one third of the real estate for life. One sixth of the balance is given to each of his brothers, A. C. Robinson and J. C. Robinson, the same to go to the children in the event of the death of either before his. The remainder of his estate is divided equally among the 18 children of his brothers and sisters who died before he did. His wife, Mrs. Minnie H. Robinson, and J. B. Paxton are named as executors.—Interior Journal.

A Marked Occasion.

Universal was the expression of appreciation of the Union Gospel Service of Lancaster Churches, when Eld. F. M. Tindler preached the first sermon in the City Park, Sunday night. One of the leading citizens expressed desire for a week of such services after the fair season. Three gentlemen in a chat between themselves just before the service agreed to give $25 for park extension and improvement next year. It would be the crown jewel of Lancaster and Garrard to make it so. On and up with it!

The earnestness, heartiness and responsiveness in the service of Sunday night by everyone was notable and cheering. Let all good people pray and work to make these happy services a blessing to city and county as well even to regions beyond us.

To Edit a Town.

W. J. Pilkington, of Des Moines, editor of the Merchants' Trade Journal, has taken absolute charge of every business house in Dexter, Iowa, a town of 800, for seven months for the purpose of proving the city methods will bring prosperity to the merchant in a country town. Mr. Pilkington has placed the town in the hands of Guy Pogus, who is personally conducting every business from the bank to the lumber yard. At the end of seven months he declares the profits will be doubled, trade will be attracted to Dexter from other points and the city will be metropolitan. As all the members of the City Council are merchants who have placed their business in Pilkington's hands, the latter is also controlling municipal government and has cleaned streets and adopted many new ordinances. Mr. Pilkington believes in advertising, with the result that the Dexter paper has more advertisements than the editor ever had before. The remarkable experiment is attracting attention of business men all over the Middle West.

The hearts of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Eisener, were made glad Sunday morning when a fine girl, Carrie Ellmore, announced her arrival. Mr. Eisener lives in Charleston, West Virginia, but has been with her mother, Mrs. N. Miller for several weeks.

Lincoln County Fair.

All is in readiness for the Lincoln County fair, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week. They offer a nice lot of premiums, and will undoubtedly make this the best fair ever held in Lincoln county. Don't forget the dates, July 21, 22, 23.

Lancaster Defeats Mt. Vernon.

Lancaster defeated Mt. Vernon Wednesday afternoon, in an interesting game, which resulted in a score of 4 to 1. The most striking features of the game were the catches made by Joseph on 3rd for Lancaster and in right field for Mt. Vernon. Watkins for Lancaster fanned 15 men and Bass for Mt. Vernon, fanned 3. Harris umpired.

Moved Business.

S. D. Turner, who has been running an up-to-date restaurant and grocery on the square, has moved his stock to the Corder store room on Depot street. They have quit the restaurant business and will now have more room for a larger stock of groceries. They will appreciate the trade of their old as well as new customers.

The Fireless Cooker.

A disorderly kitchen full of steam, smoke and food odors, can be transformed into an attractive room, says a writer in The Ladies World, by using a fireless cooker.

It will also leave the housekeeper's mind and body free from worry, giving her periods of rest in which she can recuperate and be fresh to complete the self-cooking meal. The Sunday dinner is cooking while she is at church and she can listen in peace to the sermon, as there is no danger of the dinner being dried up or burned to a crisp. During the rush of field work the cooker, filled with its load of meat, vegetables and coffee, is transferred to the scene of action early in the morning and the men served their dinner while resting beneath some shady tree. Especially is this desirable when the field is a mile or two from the house and a walk in the hot sun is dreaded by the "hands." A basket packed with the dishes can accompany the cooker and the men wait upon themselves. This is not a theory, but actual fact, as last summer it was put into practical test. The heavy noon meal out of the way, the farmers' wife can take part or all of that time to either rest or do other needful work, in the line of sewing and mending, before supper time arrives. Serving large families in this manner has been successfully demonstrated by the United States Army, and certainly soldiers work as hard and as steadily as the farmers, almost.

Holman-Crow.

The following article taken from the Aurora, Ind., Independent, will be of much interest to the many friends of Mrs. Rose Crow, now Mrs. Steele Holman:

Saturday, July 3, 1909, at high noon in Louisville, Ky., Mr. W. S. Holman, of this city and Mrs. Rosa B. Crow were married in the apartment of the bride in Guthrie-Coke, in the presence of a number of close and intimate friends, Rev. W. M. Bruce officiating.

The beautiful and stately bride was elegantly attired in a princess robe of rare lace, while the handsome groom wore a conventional suit of black.

The apartment was exquisitely decorated and the wedding service took place beneath a bower of roses, add to a glimmer of red light. Mrs. Rosa B. Crow is a woman of magnificent and regal beauty of the Gibson type, and a rarely sweet, noble, beautiful character, one of the granddaughters of Kentucky's commonwealth. A woman widely known, she has many friends and on this happy occasion their devotion was beautifully manifested and the adoration of the servants was pathetic, as they kissed her feet, her dress, and wearing apparel.

The happy couple met many years ago and the marriage is the consummation of a long friendship which has in it all the elements of romance.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Holman came immediately to the home of the groom Verestau, where they are spending their honeymoon, and will make their home.

The groom, Mr. W. S. Holman the worthy son of the well known Holman family, the pioneers of this county needs no eulogy, but is the worthy peer of the grand woman he has taken for his wife. His friends join with hers in showering congratulations and best wishes for the best things this life can give.

Hotel Stockholders.

Notice is hereby given to the stockholders of the Garrard Hotel Company to present their stock certificates to J. W. Elmore at the office in Garrard Bank & Trust Co., and receive therefor notes signed by R. Zimmer for equal amounts of their paid stock together with their first payment of 5 per cent as per agreement of stock as subscribed for in the Garrard Hotel Company.

Notice to Holders of State Warrants.

This office is informed that in the future the Auditor will discontinue sending Treasurers checks for amounts due claimants, but instead will mail his warrants to claimants, thereby causing them the necessity, and danger of misdirection and possible loss in the mails, by remailing the warrants to the Treasurer for payment. As a matter of safety and convenience to those receiving warrants, as well as to this office, I would suggest and advise that all warrants sent out by the Auditor be deposited with your local bank for collection. It will probably not be possible to pay all warrants just yet, but those that we are unable to pay will be returned with checks for those that are paid. If the suggestions are complied with, payments can be made with more promptness, and possible loss through the mails reduced to a minimum. Very Truly, E. Farley, Treasurer.

Notice, Clean UP.

By order of the city council all parties are directed to clean up all filth and weeds on their premises and on the streets and alleys adjoining their property. Thursday, July 15, 1909, is set apart as cleaning up day and the city will haul off all garbage etc., placed in front of premises in garbage cans, barrels or boxes on said date. All persons failing to comply with this order will be prosecuted by warrant in Police Court.
L. E. Herron, Marshal.

Attention! Farmers!

The Blue Grass Fair Association offer the following Blue Grass Fair Stake for its fair of 1909:

Special stake of $1,000 for five-gaited Saddle Horses,—stallion, mare or gelding, any age, to be shown under saddle in accordance with the rules of the Blue Grass Fair Association governing Five-Gaited Saddle Horses.

In order to stimulate interest in improved agriculture and to offer opportunity to show to the world the character of farm products grown in this section, the Blue Grass Fair, to be held at Lexington the week of August 9-14 has framed conditions for the following exhibit which should be one of its most attractive and beneficial features.

Exhibit of products from individual farms, not less than six from appended list to be shown, all to be grown by exhibitor, $100, divided into four premiums—$25, $25, $25, $25.

From the following list the exhibitor is to choose not less than six products of his own farm to be shown, and it is also understood that exhibitor may show as many more than six as he may desire:
Burley Tobacco, Hemp, Corn in Stalk, Sorgum in Stalk, Wheat in Stalk, Oats in Stalk, Rye in Stalk, Barley in Stalk, Alfalfa, Red Clover, White Clover, Soy Beans, Cow Peas, Blue Grass, Timothy, Orchard Grass, German Millet, Potatoes.

CARTERSVILLE.

Several from this place attended Church at Level Green Saturday night.

Mrs. Lunda Conn and daughter, Katie attended the burial of Mrs. R. H. Aldridge, Friday. Mrs. J. B. Carter accompanied them home for a few days.

A little before dawn Thursday morning the death angel visited our midst and claimed for his own, one of our most honorable women, Mrs. R. H. Aldridge. For more than four months she had been in bed but bore her suffering without complaint. In her death the community has lost a noble and good woman, the church a devoted member, the family a loving wife and mother. She was conscious until death and told her husband the day before she died that she was dying. She leaves to mourn their loss a husband and one son, Bradley Montgomery, whose father died 9 years ago, a mother, two sister and a brother.

We extend our heart felt sympathy to the bereaved ones. A large concourse of friends followed the body to its last resting place at Smith's cemetery where she was sweetly laid to rest.

Mr. Tivis Preston and two daughters, Mattie Ray and Carrie, of Danville, were the guests of his mother, Mrs. Mary H. Preston last Saturday and Sunday.

Starved to Death

is what could truthfully be said of many children who die. They have worms, poor little things—they don't know it and you don't realize it. If your child is cross, fretful, pasty complexioned and loses weight for no apparent reason, given it White's Cream Vermifuge, you will be surprised at the results and how quickly it picks up.—Sold by R. E. McRoberts.

FINE FARM IN GARRARD

COUNTY FOR SALE.

A fine blue grass farm for sale situated on new pike near Point Leavelle and six miles south of Lancaster, containing 200 acres, well located in good neighborhood, being part of the John Walker tract, with a handsome new,

two-story seven-room residence thereon, with

Farm and Stock.

Land Sale.

Hughes & Swinebroad report that they have just sold for G. H. Swine-broad a part of the Dunn land, recently purchased by him near Bryan's village, to Benj. Graham for $120.00 per acre.

The Equally farmers of Warren county have completed arrangements for the pooling of their wheat crops.

They will hold it at $1.10 a bushel.

Gay Brothers, of Woodford county, made a snuggum in two weeks, on their purchase of Kentucky's Choice

They paid $3,500 for the stallion and sold him to Campbell, of Columbus for $6,000.

Four solid train loads, 119 cars of tabacco were shipped from Kentucky and Tennessee to Florida this week for export to Liverpool. The cars contained an average of 14 loads of a total of approximately 1,720,000 pounds.

If horses or colts have worms, try feeding them raw potatoes, thinly sliced. You will probably have to mix the potatoes in with the grain at first to get the horses to eat them. A few raw potatoes each week are good for a horse at any time.

Jay-Eye-See, the first 2:10 trotter in this country, died several days ago on Pleasant View Farm, Racine, Wis.

Jay-Eye-See got his name from the late Jerome I. Case, millionaire vehicle manufacturer, and was thrown in on a horse purchase in Kentucky. He had been in retirement for fourteen years.

Mr. Garrett D. Wilson, of Lexington, purchased from Major David

Castleman the four-year-old three gaited bay gelding, The Master, by

Cecil Palmer out of Little Bettle, at a figure said to be near $2,000. The Master has been pronounced one of the finest types of saddle horses ever produced in Kentucky.

Creseus 2:02, now owned in Russia, sulked some time ago because he was whipped in a race. When he was put back in his stall he refused to come out or to let anybody in beside him. Gen. H. Ketchum, his former owner, was sent for and made the trip from America to Russia to effect a truce between the horse and the Russians. He reports that the horse recognized him and willingly submitted to being harnessed and driven.

There isn't an animal on the farm that can be cared for so easily or cheaply as sheep. They are the only animals to grow when help is scarce. They require very little protection, just enough to keep off the cold winds and rain, and so one does not have to be eternally fussing to keep them cool or warm. They are practically self-feeding in summer, and about all one need do is to give plenty of water and salt.

Two meals a day in winter, with salt about all the attention they need.

An antiseptic bath once or twice a year, and all the labor necessary is done. Surely not very much even on busy days; now, is it?

G. B. Swinebroad, the Jersey cattle fancier, of Garrard county, attended the sale of American-bred Jersey cattle at the Creekmeads Stock Farm, near Shelbyville, Wednesday. In this offering sale included all of the American-bred cattle owned by Dr. Rodman, and also a number of Island-topped females. The reputation of the Creek-meads herd is known far and wide, and

Dr. Rodman has spared neither money nor effort to secure the best blood lines obtainable. These cattle were Domesticating the Buffalo.

The experiments in Corbin park,

New Hampshire, have demonstrated not only that it is possible to make the animal, but that it is just as easy to rear and make tame as a domestic cow. The first buffalo was introduced into the park in 1890. In six years the herd had increased to 75. Animals have been sold from this herd for other purposes. In 1906 the herd numbered

140. For seven months in the year the animals obtained their own living, running at will on Crocydon mountain.

During the long, severe winters when the snow in New Hampshire is so deep that it is impossible for any animal to paw down to the ground, the animals are fed on hay and for convenience are yarded to small inclos-ures near the barns, where the hay is trucked. The American Bison association is endeavoring at present to push the greatest of all American game animals to the front as a valuable farm animal. It is said that his flesh is almost indistinguishable from beef. The hide brings an enormous price and the heads of old bulls are sometimes worth $500 to $600 for mounting purposes.

Some of Turkey's Wealth.

No one has ever attempted to place a value on the contents of the Ottoman treasury, which it is stated the Young Turks propose to turn into cash for national needs. Its worth in money is unthinkable, for the solid gold throne is studded with 10,000 pearls as big as almonds, while there are rows of bowls filled with uncut

gems, and amazing ancient armor sets with rubies, emeralds and diamonds.

Among all this wealth there are also such trifles as some of the most exquisite Sevres china in the world, presented by Louis XIV. to Sultan Mes-topha.

"That's Good."

"My husband has always been one to encourage those who work for him," remarked Mrs. Pike to her sister.

"You mean he is always ready to give praise where praise is due?"

"Yes, indeed. When one of the men does good work he is quick to say so. Night after night, after he has been late at the office, I hear him murmuring in his sleep: 'That's good! That's good!' And he always reluctantly confesses that he was dreaming about the good work the men are doing at the office. Oh, I'm so glad!"

A Contented Woman

keeps every member of the family

free from aches and pains, it cures cuts, burns and scalds and rheumatisms, neuralgia, lumbago and all muscular soreness and stiffness.
